Louisa is a senior associate in the private client and tax team.

Louisa advises domiciled and non-domiciled high net worth individuals and international families on UK tax issues and cross border planning. She assists with the creation of trusts and provides UK tax advice for the trustees and beneficiaries of onshore and offshore trusts. She also provides advice to individuals and intermediaries on the Common Reporting Standard and other regulatory matters.

She joined our London office in 2001 as a trainee and qualified into the firm's private client department in 2003. She moved to Geneva when we opened our first Swiss office in 2005.
